What? Who? When? What to do?

A Beading Workshop by Jasmine Crutchfield on Sunday, April 16, 12:30pm

Jasmine will bring all the supplies needed to let you make a pair of earrings in the colors of your choice. Participants will create a pair of graceful beaded earrings. Perfect for Spring!

If you have not already signed up, drop by the Lake Shastina Community Center on Sunday at 12:30pm. Questions? Call Judy Hester at 530-227-9913.

Our Beading Artist: Jasmine Crutchfield

Jasmine started her beading journey in 2002, when her mother sent her a book on bead embroidery with a note saying, "Hey, you should do this!" Little did she know what she was starting. Jasmine moved to Humboldt County later the same year and found a great bead store in town. Many books, beads, and stabbed finger later, Jasmine spends much of her time now making beaded jewelry, cutting glass bottles to make drinking glasses, recycling newspapers to weave baskets, and various other crafting projects. Today she resides in the Weed area with 3 dogs – Walter, Opie, and Sunny. Here are other examples of her beading work.

An Immense Thank You!

From the estate of Susan Nihen: a generous donation to Mt. Shasta High School and Yreka High School of framing and matting materials. We're sure they will be greatly appreciated by the art students of these schools!

From the March SAA Meeting

- Members were treated to yet another very valuable critique by Willo Balfrey, who pinpointed every piece's strong features and also where there was room for adjustment. We were all very appreciative and offer Willo our resounding thanks!
- Thanks also to all members who voted to pass our very vital, revised bylaws. These essential revisions of the bylaws help enable us to successfully run our organization, award our scholarships, fulfill tax requirements, and pursue grants.
- Betsy Shutteroff reported on the 34th Annual Madrone Hospice Art Auction. A number of our members donated items which helped to raise a total of $14,000 in donations to this worthy organization. We always look forward to seeing and sharing updates on what other activities that SAA members are involved in. Please feel free to share what's going on in your art world with us!
